ARCHIE CAMPBELL

Archie Campbell, Grand Ole Opry's favorite comedian, has often been referred to as the "Mayor of Bulls Gap, Tennessee". Sometimes, as you can see by the front cover, a Mayor can get into a compromising situation. Such might be the case except that Archie can't be compromised when it comes to country humor. He has a routine that has been in demand at night clubs, conventions, parties, and club gatherings for many years throughout the Southern States. And Southern rural humor was never more popular, particularly up North. Here is a fresh new approach to American humor with a masterful, in person, performance by a real pro.

Archie was raised in Greene County, Tennessee and spent most of his boyhood on a farm. He obtained a good education at Mars Hill College but he never let it interfere with his back woods stories or the "Tennessee 'Twang'" in his voice.

Archie got into the entertainment business as an announcer and disc jockey at Radio WNOX in Knoxville, Tennessee. Later he became a television favorite in Chattanooga, Knoxville, Bristol, and Johnson City, Tennessee. At present Archie is a featured star on Radio WSM's internationally famous Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tennessee where his songs, his comedy routines, and his master of ceremonies work are a standout feature.

This particular recording was made before a select gathering at the RCA Victor recording studios in Nashville, Tennessee. Everyone seemed to be having such a good time that Chet Atkins turned on the tape recorder and "caught Archie in the act". In fact that is the voice of the one and only Chet Atkins introducing Archie at the start of the record. Some of the stories in this album have been requested so much due to Archie's performances on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry that it was felt that the material should be preserved in an album.

Despite the fact that some people can read any meaning they wish into some of the stories, Starday contends that this album is suitable for entertainment of the entire family in any good home. Starday also feels that the humor of rural America should be preserved just as much as the music, and we feel that Archie Campbell will spread a lot of sunshine and make a lot more new friends as his humor is made available in record form.

Sincerely,

DON PIERCE, President
